

Printing Library Searches (in the Library)

Printing library search results requires that you first "print" the search into a PDF, then print the PDF.

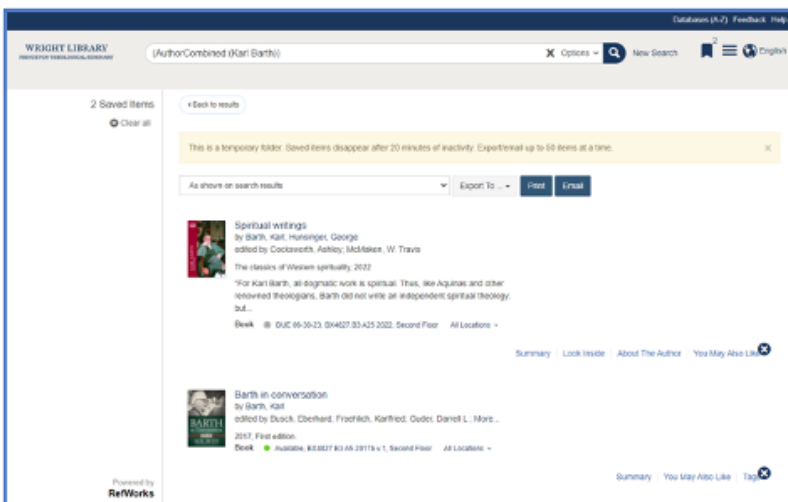

To print your search results:

1. Save the references you want to print and select a format.

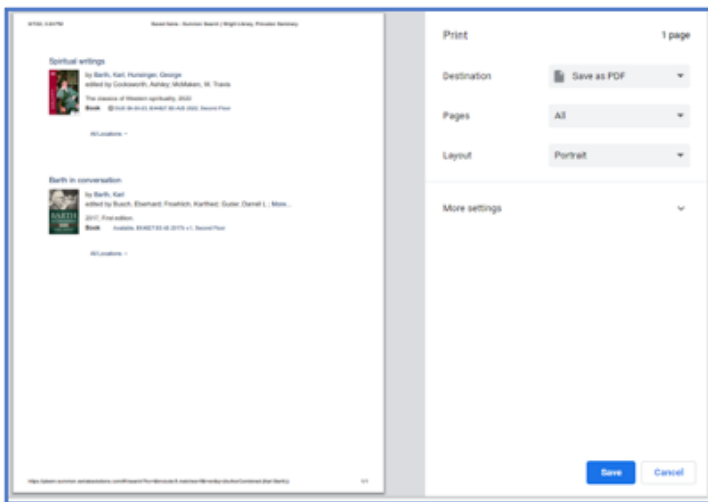

For example, Chicago/Turabian: Author-Date or As shown on search results:

2. Click Print

3. Select Save as PDF and click Save.

4. Save your file to the desktop.

5. Next, go to <https://webprinting.ptsem.edu> to print via the web. For instructions on how to print via the web, see Web Printing.*

Don't forget to delete your file from the desktop.

*Alternatively, you can Export or Email results. For email, you can select HTML or (plain) Text format.
